

Summarizing

Read the document silently to yourself

With a partner decide on a graphic organizer that will work well to organize the information you learned in the document

Re-read the document, organize the information learned into a graphic organizer on the large white paper

Individually, write a paragraph (at least 5 sentences) summarizing the information in the graphic organizer. Please start your summary with "According to the author..."

Turn in Graphic organizer, show your teacher your summary